THE WHEELBARROW MAN.

What the Pushing Pedestrian says of Himself.

(Winemucca Silver State, 19th.)

R. L. Potter, the wheelbarrow man, arrived here at 11 o'clock yesterday, took quarters at the Central Pacific hotel and remained until this morning. He is about 42 years of age, long haired and long bearded, and would pass for a frontiersman among frontiersmen. He has no objection to taking a "smile" with the boys when invited, and throws a half dollar in sight for the drinks himself, occasionally. He left Albany, New York, on the 10th of last April with a wheelbarrow, which is to weigh not less than 50 pounds at any time during the journey, for San Francisco, and is to receive $1000 in greenbacks if he completes his journey, 4085 miles, in 215 working days. He has to report progress daily at the stations on the railroad. He is now about twenty days ahead of time, and unless he succumbs to the influence of whiskey, will accomplish his task with ease, as he is now so accustomed to walking and pushing the wheelbarrow, that he can travel on an average 35 miles daily.

His wheelbarrow is rather dilapidated in consequence of the dryness of the climate, and has been repaired several times on the road, and with provisions, water, letters, etc., weighs from 70 to 75 pounds. On the bed of the barrow is painted in large letters the time at which he started, the distance to be traveled, and the destination of the traveler. It is ornamented with antelope horns, surmounted by the stars and stripes, which are unfurled to the breeze in fair weather.

Potter says he has three motherless children who are provided for out of the money deposited as an inducement for him to undertake the journey, and if he fails to reach San Francisco within the specified time, the persons who put up the money will lose what it costs to support the children while he is on the road; but if he succeeds he gets $1000 less that amount. He attracted considerable attention here, and a great many people called to see him and his wheelbarrow during his stay in town.

He Had Jurisdiction.

(From the Stockton Independent.)

The average country Justice of the Peace is a legal lunatic whose owl-like assumption of wisdom is only equalled by the dense ignorance of the simplest forms of law. A good story of one of this type comes from Calaveras county, and is vouched for on good authority. One day last May a man was arraigned before Justice M., charged with disturbing the peace, an offense which was denominated in the complaint (made out by the same Justice) to be a felony. Prior to the trial of the case, or the introduction of any testimony, the attorney for the defense argued that of, as the complaint alleged, the offense was a felony, the judge had no jurisdiction over it. After hearing the argument patiently the astute magistrate gravely announced that he would take the matter under advisement. Accordingly, he adjourned the court and took a stroll down the road with his thumbs tucked under his suspenders, cogitating on the point at issue. Returning after ten or fifteen minutes, he reopened the court and announced that he had jurisdiction on the case, that he found the man guilty, and would fine him $25. The lawyers protested that they should be allowed to introduce some evidence as to the guilt or innocence of the accused, but in vain. The Judge reduced them to silence with a lofty wave of the hand and remarked that he knew the fellow was guilty because he was well acquainted with the complaining witness, and what he said was all right. That settled it, and we presume the fine was paid without further question.

Kearney at the Hub.

Boston, September 18.—Kearney spoke here to-night to an audience of at least fifteen thousand people; he urged the workmen to put mechanics on their ticket without fail, and not to compromise with anyone. This must be done, he said, if he had to attend to it himself. [A voice: "All we want is a leader. We will follow you."] Butler was indorsed with great enthusiasm.

A Weary Editor.

(From the Deadwood Times.)

We are getting tired of threats our life, which are being daily made because we publish the daily current news, by a lot of dampfools in this camp, and we intend to get a stocking full of mush some of these hot days, and make it a business to go around and mashing these terrible, dangerous shooters' heads.

Eureka, Sentinel.—A nervous gambler started in against one of our faro banks the other evening with a solitary four-bit piece; ran the amount up to the respectable sum of $15, and went down the road that leads to ruin until he had but a solitary "chip" left. In his wrath as he viewed his pile, he took a fearful oath; chewed up the last chip as a country lad would a ginger-cake, and walked off in high dudgeon.

A REMARKABLE WILL.

Allan T. Wilson Was Slightly Down on Catholicism.

(Stock Exchange.)

A lunatic bearing the name of Allan T. Wilson has made a will. We judge him to have been a lunatic from his will in which he bequeaths one-half of his estate, valued at $35,000, to his wife, and the remaining half to his young son, John Ward Wilson, subject to the following conditions: "If he dies childless, the property shall go to the Orphan Asylum which has been longest established and in which no person in authority is a Roman Catholic. He is empowered to give his mother $500 per year for her support, providing, however, that she shall not give any money, not even to the extent of one dollar, to any Catholic priest, church or society. If the son attains the age of ten years, and then uses tobacco, alcohol, wine, beer, or cider as beverages he shall forfeit all right under the will, or pass a month, and live on nothing but bread and water, and each time he commits the offense the penance must be repeated. If after 18 years of age he shall drink or smoke he shall forfeit his estate, or, instead, work steadily for a year as a common farm laborer, and save one-half of his wages, and he shall so labor as to earn at least two-thirds of the wages farm laborers generally receive. If he becomes a Catholic, or after being 18 years he shall give any money whatever to a Catholic priest or even layman, he shall forfeit his estate." The will adds that he may give small sums, not exceeding $5 each, to really destitute persons without making any extensive inquiries as to whether he is a Catholic or not. If Wilson wasn't crazy when he so declared his last will and testament then never was a man qualified for Stockton or Napa.

Sentenced to Five Years.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.—In the Fifteenth District Court to-day, William Howard, who stabbed and killed John McGowan on the 16th ultimo in a Pacific street dive, was sentenced to five years at San Quentin for murder in the second degree.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Don't Forget It.

If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid at this season of the year, as poisons arising from marshes, stagnant water are more numerous, and are, through inhalation, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not heeded, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Prairie Flower proves itself the great liver panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by our druggists, OGDON & SHOEMAKER. 5-10-11

WASHOE IN THE STATE CONVENTION.

The delegation from Washoe county to the State convention of the Republican party, has returned and desires us through the GAZETTE to give an account of their stewardship. They might point to the ticket published elsewhere and remain silent, as the result of our labors is there clearly shown. Some few details and reminiscences, however, may be interesting. The ticket was elected upon issues made plain before the people, and as a result of the scouring given by this paper to the public offenders and bad management. The delegates were defended, advocated and elected by the GAZETTE and its friends. They went to Eureka at their own expense resolved to carry out the public will and provide for the party success. The thirteen votes of Washoe county were solid in the convention against railroad discrimination, compromise of the bullion tax in any form, the encroachments of corporations, and all other planks in the platform which were against the interests of the people.

The delegation had thirteen votes at the bottom of the roll, and virtually decided every question which was closely contested. They can therefore point to every act of the convention which was in doubt, for their action.

The delegation was essentially a united body and bent upon demanding recognition for Washoe county. They secured it in the offices of State Treasurer, Surveyor-General and Judge of the Second Judicial District. This should certainly be entirely satisfactory to the county. Washoe has been ignored for the last ten years and if the present recognition is generous, it is also timely. The popular idea, and a protection of the people, will be recognized in the solid vote of Washoe for the people's delegation from Storey. Hon. Wm. Thompson, of Franktown, headed the delegation in this matter. The hand of Hon. Wm. Boardman will be recognized in the platform, which he helped to draw, and with the good hard sense and honesty of Messrs. Marker, Herman and Cahlan, the delegation was ensured strength. It was strong and succeeded in its every wish. The members believe that they wished for the public good and Republican success. The GAZETTE hands the record over to the people with a feeling of pardonable pride—confident that they will take back the trust which was confided in these worthy citizens, and admit them to be good and faithful servants.

REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The committee which is to name the easiest manner in which we may defeat the Democrats this year was named at the Republican convention as follows:

Churchill county—H. R. Whitehill, Douglas—J. W. Hayne, Elko—M. P. Freeman and T. N. Stone, Esmeralda—Wilson Battler and Clem Ogd, Eureka—P. P. Canavan, H. Johnson and Wm. Doolin, Humboldt—W. T. Stephens, Lander—M. J. Farrell and J. A. Blossom, Lincoln—S. L. Lee and A. J. Blair, Lyon—John W. Grier and George W. Keith, Nye—Benj. Currier, Ormsby—George Wilson and W. O. H. Martin, Storey—James Seelye, I. L. Requa, J. D. Baldwin and Alf. Doten, Washoe—W. M. Boardman and William Thompson, White Pine—J. B. Williamson and H. K. Lyons.

A party by the name of Strong, of Caladaga, Georgia, recently applied for letters patent on a chalk mark and has been refused. It is said that to draw a ring with a piece of chalk around any given number of ants they will traverse the circuit, but ants will not traverse the circuit, but some unexplained reason have no way to get over the line. Now, in the neighborhood of many country dwellers, ants are very troublesome. Strong stated that if the ants can not get over a chalk line, it is only necessary to draw a number of chalk lines on the ground, and for this discovery he has applied for letters patent, and the result above stated.

The news of Kinkad's nomination for Governor, Winemucca, Democrats united in firing a salute to his most popular man.

THE NOMINATIONS.

In the Republican State convention at Eureka the first question at issue was between the Batterman and people's delegation from Storey county. The former was defended by Jonas Seely with more zeal than judgment. The delegates who came from the people were endorsed by T. A. and J. A. Stephens of Storey. These gentlemen won their case and commanded the admiration of delegates by the generous and gentlemanly manner of their advocacy. The vote stood 59 to 38, and this decided adversely to Batterman's claims.

John H. Kinkad and Gen. P. E. Conner were, under the head of nominations, placed before the convention for the office of Governor. No other name was mentioned. The vote stood, Kinkad 66, Conner 63.

For Lieutenant-Governor Harry Mighels was nominated by acclamation. T. P. Hawley was nominated by acclamation for Supreme Judge.

I. F. Hallock, Controller, by acclamation.

I. Babcock, Secretary of State, by acclamation.

A. J. Hatch, Surveyor-General, received 77 votes on first ballot his two opponents being merely complimentary nominations.

L. L. Crockett, Treasurer, by acclamation.

M. A. Murphy, for Attorney-General by acclamation.

J. D. Hammond, for Superintendent of Public Instruction, on the fourth vote received 66 and was nominated.

Charles F. Bicknell, Supreme Clerk, by acclamation.

In the Judicial convention for the Second District, C. S. Varian was nominated for District Judge, by acclamation.

In the case of those nominated by acclamation none others were mentioned.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Governor, OF HUMBOLDT, J. H. KINKAD. For Lieutenant-Governor, HENRY R. MIGHELS. For Member of Congress, R. M. DAWGETT. For Judge of Supreme Court, T. P. HAWLEY. For State Controller, J. F. HALLOCK. For State Treasurer, L. L. CROCKETT. For Secretary of State, JASPER BABCOCK. For Attorney General, M. A. MURPHY. For Surveyor General, A. J. HATCH. For Supreme Court Clerk, CHARLES F. BICKNELL. For Superintendent of Public Instruction, J. D. HAMMOND. For District Judge, HON. CHAS. S. VARIAN.

FIRED OUT.

The GAZETTE commends heartily the action of our Judicial convention in not even mentioning the name of Judge S. H. Wright. With Judge Wright we had no chance for victory. Now, we can enter the lists with hope. The GAZETTE has promised to remove Judge Wright from office. The work has been done, and in the public interest.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Deacon Parkinson was at Eureka during the State convention. One afternoon in sight of the delegates he penned the following and then fell fainting to the floor:

I tell you what I never saw such scandalous doings in the Republican party, and by all I hold sacred, I firmly believe that Republicans are today endeavoring to elect the Democratic ticket. I said a few days since that I was ashamed of the grand old party and almost of my citizenship. I now repeat my assertion, and if I had means enough I would fence in a house, buy a bulldog and a howitzer, and if a man requested me to take a hand in politics, if the dog did not kill that man the gun would. Great God! What is the grand old party coming to!

In the same Tribune which published the above wall of agony, appeared the shout of exultation from the editorial lungs of Parkie, Jr.:

"The Republican State convention completed its work yesterday, and as a whole present the strongest ticket ever put forward by the party since Nevada became a State. As a general thing the nominees are new men—men of solid worth and integrity."

Subscribers are always furnished with variety in the Tribune. Very often they are treated to absurdity. Verbum Sap was wrong for once and Multum in Parvo was right.

The action of the Eureka Convention in ignoring the credentials given to the appointed delegates by the county central committee of Storey, and seating the gentlemen elected by the party at the primaries last Saturday, will meet with the approbation of the masses of the Republican party throughout the State. The committee has received a well-merited rebuke, and the rights of the people have been sustained.

The most consistent Democratic organ in the State says: "Though of a different political faith from Mr. Kinkad, the Silver State, which aims to treat candidates fairly, irrespective of party, has kept the fact of his being a candidate before the public, believing that he was not contaminated by Comstock ring influences, and that if a Republican is to be elected, he is preferable to any other candidate for office in his party, and as a representative of Humboldt and its interests, it is pleased to chronicle his success in the convention.

Some pretended Republican is busy in trying to create a prejudice so soon against Harry Mighels as a candidate. This is purely a labor of love, for there are no grounds upon which such a prejudice can stand. It is very easy to slander a man, and we ask every good Republican to demand reasons, when his candidates are assailed covertly, or openly. We have the strongest ticket ever placed before the people of Nevada, and will elect it from top to bottom, unless we have to meet double-dealing within the party.

The Sentinel is beginning to see what a shabby appearance the Democrats will make when their procession is formed for the fall march. It confesses:

Our Republican friends yesterday turned the tables very handsomely on the Democracy. They resolved for rotation, and against third terms in office, and kept faith on the proposition by "firing out" all of the Republican occupants of the capitol building at Carson. Mr. Hobart, Mr. Miner and General Day each had to walk the anti-third term plank.

She lived but a few minutes after being released.

Killed by a Journalist.

PORTLAND, September 19.—A few days ago J. K. Mercer of the Bee published a long article reflecting on A. C. McDonald, business manager of the Telegram, accusing his wife of begging from the business manager of the San Francisco Chronicle to keep from starving. The next day McDonald published a notice that an apology must be made or trouble would ensue. Today McDonald and Mercer met on First street, between Stark and Oak. McDonald told Mercer he would spit in his face. Mercer was standing with his hand on his pistol. More words ensued, when McDonald caught Mercer by the coat, throwing him. Mercer was quickly on his feet, and fired, shooting McDonald in the abdomen. Before he had arisen Mercer followed him up, firing three times from a self-cooker, inflicting a severe flesh wound, and striking him twice on the head with the butt of the pistol. McDonald then drew a pistol and fired four times at Mercer, who ran away. One shot passed through Sherlock's saldry store door, striking a workman named Lochner in the thigh, inflicting a painful wound. Mercer is under arrest. McDonald is not expected to live. Some excitable people talked of lynching Mercer.

Chinese Peddler Murdered.

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 19.—A well-known Chinese vegetable peddler named Ah Gong, was brutally murdered last night in his bunk in the Chinese quarters. The remains were discovered about 9 A. M., in a terribly butchered condition, the implement used having evidently been a hatchet or some like instrument. The bunk and clothing were bespattered with blood. The Chinaman who bunked with him has been arrested and lodged in prison.

Perished for Want of Water.

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 16.—A few days ago the body of a man was found about nine miles west of what is known as the Adobe station, twenty-four miles from Bakersfield, and in the immediate vicinity of the road leading from the Adobe to San Emigdio. The man appeared to have been dead about two weeks. Birds had eaten part of his jaws, and some beads of prey had torn his pantaloons and eaten a portion of one thigh. He was well dressed. His coat lay by his side, and spectacles and comb were found near the body also. There was no food of any kind discovered, but an empty alcohol bottle lay near, in which probably the poor fellow had carried water when he had left the Adobe. His pantaloons were covered with mud half way up to his knees, and it was evident that he had endeavored to get to Kern lake, hard by, for water, but sinking in the mud which intervened between hard ground and the lake, he returned to die in full view of the water, which could have reached it, would have preserved his life. From papers and receipts found in his possession, it would appear that he had been a lumberman and was on his way to San Buenaventura. A discharge also was found one of his pockets, which showed that his name was Samuel George W. McLaughlin, of the Fifty-eight Pennsylvania volunteers, and approved by General Sickles. He had received his honorable discharge at Norfolk, Virginia. And thus this poor fellow, who had perhaps participated in many a hard-fought battle in the service of his country, perished on a desert plain, in full view of water which would have preserved his life.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup!

HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THIS DISCOVERY

Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy."

One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power. This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs, which depend upon the health of the nervous system. The inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nervous system depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such prompt and direct effects upon the nervous system as his Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from these maladies.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:

Chronic Constipation,
 Chronic Dyspepsia,
 Asthma,
 Chronic Bronchitis,
 Consumption,
 Chronic Diarrhea,
 Chronic Laryngitis,
 Melancholy,
 Nervous Debility,

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other low fevers, Diphtheritic Prostration, Hysteria, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the system, Loss of Voice, Stiffness of the Liver, Interrupted and Feeble Action of the Heart, Protrusive Palmaria caused by spasm of the structure of the Lungs and Air Passages leading therefrom, and Debility from various causes. Indigestion and habitual constipation almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the Intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine.

Weakness of the Joints and Inward Wastings may be cured by attention to the regular described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites

The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the fact that it is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.

This Syrup will cure PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life in the third. It will cure Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh of the Lungs, and Croup. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS POWER.

Sold by all Druggists.
